JOBE EVO

THE EVOLUTION OF WAKEBOARDING

EVO short for ev.o.lu.tion can be defined as a gradual and progressive process in which something changes into a different and in general better form. Extensive research and development by Jobe's experienced engineers down to the last detail lead to one of the most innovative product releases in the wake scene up to date. The Jobe EVO is a never before seen modular system including the most high end and unique sneaker, bindings and skin all customizable to your likings. Modularity comes with essential advantages such as a centre mounted configuration giving direct control and flex control.
